GENERAL INFORMATION

All decorative doorlites and wrought iron are triple glazed with two exterior tempered or heat strengthened .090 laminated glass. Melted units are double glazed with either clear tempered or heat strengthened .090 laminated glass.

Bubbles, lines, slight surface imperfections or discoloration are characteristics of all the fine handcrafted glass and are not to be considered defects. Melted glass is also handmade and any inconsistencies, for example, flat spots or slight bubbles are natural characteristics in the glass and should not be considered defects in the glass designs. Wrought Iron, decorative glass units and melted units may vary slightly in the final product.
